Bachelor's degree, Political Science and Government
2019 – 2022

Scuola di Politiche (SdP)
2019 – 2020

The School of Policies was born in 2015 from an idea of Enrico Letta to offer a training opportunity to talented young people.
Each year 100 students are selected to participate in the School of Policies Annual Course. A course that offers a direct comparison with the institutions and the best experts in the economic, political and social field to prepare talented young people to plan, regulate and innovate local and international government policies.
